WALL PAPER Season is Here

SO ARE WE

with a large and complete line,
 And So Cheap

Cheaper than old newspapers.

Paints, too—all Kinds

Yours for a clean house,

M. T. HILL

New barber shop now ready for business. All work guaranteed. Give us a call. Mrs. Joe Littrell, prop.

John Lambert and family were released from quarantine for smallpox last Sunday. Dan was the only one having the disease.

L. L. Jones started for Galveston Texas, Tuesday. Lance owns some land near the oil region and goes down to look after it.

Peter Kerker was sick with the grip for several days and was not able to get to the shop from Friday until Tuesday, but is feeling some better now.

Those seeds I will sell are certainly good.
 CYRUS MILAM,
 Market Gardener,
 South Auburn, Nebr

Nemaha is to have a new grocery store. W. P. Tidrow is going to put in a good stock of groceries in the Masonic building, where he is now living.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Sapp, Mr. and Mrs. Del Vandeventer, and Mr. and Mrs. Chet Sedoras, all of Brownville, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Nate Sedoras Sunday.

Dan Maxwell, who has been confined to his home for some time, is able to get out again. His feet are diseased and have been so sore he could not get around much.

MR. AND MRS. CHAS. W. ROBERTS CELEBRATE SILVER WEDDING

Mr and Mrs. Char. W. Roberts celebrated their silver wedding last Saturday, March 14, at their beautiful home, four miles southwest of Nemaha. Twenty-five years ago they were made husband and wife. Joys and sorrows have been borne together, and time has only strengthened and added to the love they bore each other when they were young. They have prospered financially, but better than all is the respect and affection felt for them by their old neighbors and friends and the love of the children whom they have seen grow from babyhood to young manhood and womanhood and have trained to live honestly and do their part towards helping the world grow better.

About fifty guests accepted the invitation and a rare good time was enjoyed by all. The dinner served was a feast fit for the best citizen of our land and many of them were present. It is hoped that Mr. and Mrs. Roberts may live to celebrate their golden wedding and diamond also and that we may be permitted to celebrate with them.

Many presents were received—handsome, valuable and useful.

Rev. H. Presson, who performed the marriage ceremony twenty-five years ago, is living in Auburn, and expected to be present but for some reason was not there.

We carry a good supply of well made harness and harness supplies, robes, whips, halters, etc.
 Edwards & Bradford Lumber Co.

WANTED

I will pay more than any body for all kinds of furs, racoon, skunk, civit, opossum, musk rats, minks, fox, wolf, beaver, otter and all kinds of furs. Want them in the next 30 or 60 days. Bring in your furs.
 P. KERKER.

Better Than a Plaster.

A piece of flannel dampened with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and bound on the affected parts, is better than a plaster for a lame back and for pains in the side and chest. Pain Balm has no superior as a liniment for the relief of deep seated, muscular, and rheumatic pains. For sale by W. W. Keeling, Druggist.

The days of the old, thick, heavy cowhide nailed on to a thick, clumsy and unsightly sole, with heavy seams running in all directions, have passed away. They are making instead a neat, sightly shoe, without seam in the upper, that is both durable and comfortable. We have these shoes with and without cap over toe, also in Congress.

We have the largest and prettiest lines of ladies' and children's Oxfords that ever came to town. Come in and see them. We will be pleased to show them to you.

We also have just received a new supply of men's heavy and light rag Proof Rubber Boots; also of ladies' low Rubbers.

Cilbert & McCandless
